AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 20 OF ECOPETROL S.A.'S BYLAWS

Location	Current text	Suggested text	Comments
Section One - Structure, election and institutional period	ARTICLE TWENTY. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.- The Board of Directors of the Company will have nine (9) principal members with no alternates, who will be elected by the General Shareholders' Meeting using the electoral quotient system for institutional periods of four (4) years. Such members may be re-elected more than once for the same period, provided that the total does not exceed three (3) periods.	ARTICLE TWENTY. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.- The Board of Directors of the Company will have nine (9) principal members with no alternates, who will be elected by the General Shareholders' Meeting using the electoral quotient system for institutional periods of four (4) years. Such members may be re-elected more than once for the same period, provided that the total does not exceed three (3) periods.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Section Two- Replacement and new election by electoral quotient	The elected persons may not be replaced in partial elections without holding a new election using the electoral quotient system, unless the vacancies are unanimously decided by the shares present at the meeting.	The elected persons may not be replaced in partial elections without holding a new election using the electoral quotient system, unless the vacancies are unanimously decided by the shares present at the meeting.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Section Three - Continuity of current members	On the slate of candidates to be presented for consideration by the General Shareholders' Meeting, at least three (3) current members will be included, except for the candidates in positions eight and nine, who will be proposed in accordance with Paragraph Two of this article.	On the slate of candidates to be presented for consideration of the General Shareholders' Assembly, the objective shall be to maintain at least three (3) current members of the Board of Directors , without this constituting a requirement for the constitution or validity of the slate, limiting the authority of the General Shareholders' Meeting to elect a different composition of the Board or preventing the full renewal of the Board of Directors.	CHANGE. The obligation to include at least three (3) current members is converted into a guiding criterion ("the objective shall be"). The exclusion of the eighth and ninth positions from the calculation is eliminated, and it is clarified that continuity does not constitute a requirement for the constitution or validity of the slate, does not limit the competence of the General Shareholders' Meeting and does not prevent the full renewal of the body.
Section Four- Nomination in a personal capacity and fiduciary duties	The nomination and appointment to the Board of Directors of the Company may be made in a personal capacity. In any case, the member of the Board of Directors must observe his/her fiduciary duties as a director in the performance of his/her duties, regardless of the origin of his/her nomination.	The nomination and appointment to the Board of Directors of the Company may be made in a personal capacity. In any case, the member of the Board of Directors must observe his/her fiduciary duties as a director in the performance of his/her duties, regardless of the origin of his/her nomination.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Section Five- Extension of the appointment	If there are no new elections of Board members, it will be understood that the appointment has been extended until a new appointment is made.	If there are no new elections of Board members, it will be understood that the appointment has been extended until a new appointment is made.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.

Section Six- Disqualifications and incompatibilities	The Board of Directors shall be subject to the regime of disqualifications and incompatibilities established by law for this purpose.	The Board of Directors shall be subject to the regime of disqualifications and incompatibilities established by law for this purpose.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Paragraph One - First institutional period	PARAGRAPH ONE: The initial four (4)-year institutional period for the members of the Board of Directors shall begin with the 2021 election and extend until the ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting in 2025. This will be the first period for re-election purposes, and they may be re-elected for the maximum tenure of three (3) periods in total, as set forth in the first paragraph of this Article.	PARAGRAPH ONE: The initial four (4)-year institutional period for the members of the Board of Directors shall begin with the 2021 election and extend until the ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting in 2025. This will be the first period for re-election purposes, and they may be re-elected for the maximum tenure of three (3) periods in total, as set forth in the first paragraph of this Article.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Paragraph Two, first paragraph - Majority of Independent Members	PARAGRAPH TWO: INDEPENDENT MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The majority of the members of the Board of Directors shall be independent. The election of the independent members of the Board of Directors will be conducted in accordance with the criteria set forth in Paragraph Two of Article 44 of Law 964 of 2005 and the procedure established in Decree 3923 of 2006, or any provision that governs, amends, replaces, or adds to these. Paragraph Three, subparagraph b) – Employment relationship	b) Hold a direct employment contract with the Company for an indefinite term.	b) Have a direct employment contract with the Company for an indefinite term.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Paragraph Three, subparagraph c) - Restrictions on positions	c) Not hold positions i) on the Board of Directors, Committees, or Commissions of trade union organizations and/or ii) that report directly to the President of Ecopetrol and/or iii) the Vice-Presidencies or Directorates of Internal Audit and Compliance, or those that act in their stead.	c) Not hold positions i) on the Board of Directors, Committees, or Commissions of trade union organizations and/or ii) that report directly to the President of Ecopetrol and/or iii) the Vice-Presidencies or Directorates of Internal Audit and Compliance, or those that act in their stead.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Paragraph Three, following paragraph - Prior verification of requirements	Prior to the vote held by the Company's employees, the Board of Directors or the Committee it designates will ensure compliance with these requirements. Applicants who do not comply will not participate in the election process. The foregoing is without prejudice to the duties exercised by the Board of Directors or the Committee it designates once the Slate of Candidates is received.	Prior to the vote held by the Company's employees, the Board of Directors or the Committee it designates will ensure compliance with these requirements. Applicants who do not comply will not participate in the election process. The foregoing is without prejudice to the duties exercised by the Board of Directors or the Committee it designates once the Slate of Candidates is received.	NO CHANGE. The current provision is preserved in its entirety.
Paragraph Three, following paragraph - Substitution according to voting results	In cases where, prior to their election by the General Shareholders' Meeting, the employee with the highest number of votes (i) fails to comply with any of the requirements and conditions established in the bylaws and internal regulations; and/or (ii) withdraws from the Nation's Slate of Candidates and/or does not accept their nomination, they will be replaced by the candidate with the next highest number of votes, and so on until a candidate can be included in the Nation's Slate of Candidates. Only if it is impossible to include a candidate in this way will the prior voting process for the nomination be conducted again.	In cases where, prior to their election by the General Shareholders' Meeting, the employee with the highest number of votes (i) fails to comply with any of the requirements and conditions established in the bylaws and internal regulations; and/or (ii) withdraws from the Nation's Slate of Candidates and/or does not accept their nomination, they will be replaced by the candidate with the next highest number of votes, and so on until a candidate can be included in the Nation's Slate of Candidates.
