

Update from the Board of Directors of Ecopetrol S.A.

Bogota D.C., May 12, 2026

Ecopetrol S.A. (BVC: ECOPETROL; NYSE: EC) hereby announces that Mr. Juan Gonzalo Castaño Valderrama has submitted his resignation as a non-independent member of the Board of Directors, citing personal and professional reasons. His resignation became effective upon the conclusion of the Board of Directors meeting held today.

Following this resignation, the Board of Directors will continue to operate with its remaining members, maintaining the quorum necessary to deliberate and the majorities required to make decisions in accordance with applicable regulations.

Ecopetrol and its Board of Directors extend their gratitude to Mr. Juan Gonzalo Castaño Valderrama for his valuable contributions, as well as for his ongoing availability, dedication, and expertise demonstrated throughout his tenure.

Ecopetrol and its Board of Directors wish him continued success in his future personal and professional endeavors.

Ecopetrol is the largest company in Colombia and one of the main integrated energy companies in the American continent, with more than 19,000 employees. In Colombia, it is responsible for more than 60% of the hydrocarbon production of most transportation, logistics, and hydrocarbon refining systems, and it holds leading positions in the petrochemicals and gas distribution segments. With the acquisition of 51.4% of ISA's shares, the company participates in energy transmission, the management of real-time systems (XM), and the Barranquilla - Cartagena coastal highway concession. At the international level, Ecopetrol has a stake in strategic basins in the American continent, with Drilling and Exploration operations in the United States (Permian basin and the Gulf of Mexico), Brazil, and Mexico, and, through ISA and its subsidiaries, Ecopetrol holds leading positions in the power transmission business in Brazil, Chile, Peru, and Bolivia, road concessions in Chile, and the telecommunications sector.
